CARLING KNOCKOUT

Gallants stun champions Stellies

DEFENDING champions Stellenbosch bowed out of the Carling Knockout Cup after suffering a shock defeat to Marumo Gallants at the Petrus Molemela Stadium on Sunday. Stellies produced a below-par performance in Bloemfontein and could not fight their way back to avoid an embarrassing exit from the tournament at the quarter-final stage.

Bahlabane Ba Ntwa utilised the support of the home crowd, securing their place as one of the semi-final contenders of the competition. Having faced each other in league action just three days prior, the tactical battle was set to be intense, with a spot in the last four on the line.

Stellies coach Steve Barker unsurprisingly fielded the same team that secured victory in the Betway Premiership clash. Conversely, Gallants' head coach Dan Malesela, returning to the bench after a midweek absence due to illness, instilled a renewed vigour in his side with just two personnel changes made.

From the first whistle, both teams maintained the intensity of their previous encounter. It was no surprise when a goal arrived within the first 17 minutes. Gallants' Siyabulela Shai continued his fine form in the competition, breaking the deadlock with a well-taken finish that gave the hosts the lead.

The 31-year-old, arguably the short-

CARLING KNOCKOUT

Conrad's concerns: Top order struggles in openers

ZAAHIER ADAMS

PROTEAS Test coach Shukri Conrad may be gleaming about the state of his current top six after their superlative efforts in the recent 2-0 series win over Bangladesh, but he will be concerned about the batters' efforts in the first round of the Division 1 CSA 4-Day Series the past weekend.

Although defending champions, the Lions only start their first-class campaign tomorrow at the Wanderers in a rematch of the T20 Challenge final, there were three matches played around the country.

There were 12 innings overall but not a single batter managed an individual century. Warriors opener Jordan Hermann produced the top score of the weekend with 99 off 184 balls (14x4), but was unfortunately dismissed for a duck in the second innings.

Warriors debutant and former Wynberg Boys' High prodigy Matt de Villiers showed plenty of promise with 94 in his first senior provincial outing before following it up with another 54 in the second innings.

Conrad will though be keeping a close eye on NW Dragons all-rounder Ruan de Swardt. The 26-year-old, who played two Tests for the Proteas on the tour of New Zealand earlier this year, showed good consistency in Gqeberha with a first innings score of 92 before keeping the Warriors at bay in the second innings with a defiant undefeated 87.

De Swardt's heroics saw the Dragons hold on for a valiant draw as they finished on 328/8 in pursuit of the Warriors' 416.

In a match dominated by the spinners at Kingsmead, Western Province's Daniel Smith held the visitors' first innings together with 92. Province left-arm spinner Kyle Simmonds ran through the Dolphins to dismiss the hosts for 196 in response to WP's 212.

The match was set up for an exciting finish with Dolphins in pursuit of WP's 241-run target, but Simmonds was on target again as he claimed 3/75 as the home side slumped to 190 to hand Province victory by 51 runs.

Boland and the Knights were involved in a straight second innings shootout as both teams were bundled out for 266 in their first innings. The Knights fared better second time around with young Dian Forrester's 71 pushing the visitors up to 291.

Justin Ontong's team folded miserably in their second innings for 128 as Knights tearaway Jo van Dyk claimed 5/28 along with Aaron Phangiso's 3/17.
