Police probe fatal stabbing

STAFF REPORTER

Cape Town Central police have launched a murder investigation after an unidentified man was stabbed to death in the city centre on Wednesday, November 4.

Police officers responded to a complaint at around 9.05pm, after receiving reports of a man lying wounded outside a premises on Hout Street.

Provincial police spokesperson Lieutenant Colonel FC Van Wyk said that upon arrival at the scene, police discovered the victim with multiple stab wounds.

Medical personnel declared him dead at the scene. "Cape Town Central police registered a murder for investigation," said van Wyk.
